HIS GREAT FUNERAL.

Gen. Sherman's Cortege Will Be Seen by Hundreds of Thousands.

Citizens May View the Body at the House This Afternoon.

President Harrison and His Cabinet Will Be Here To-Night.

There was an increesed display of fings draped and at half-must in the vicinity of the residence of the late Gen. Sherman this morning, and the throngs of callers at the house of death and sightseers to the street were greatly of curious people who eagerly strained their necks as their trains passed Seventy-first street in their endeavor to catch simply a glimpse of of Shilon and the " March to the Sea."

As yesterday, the friends and acquaintances of the dead General were permitted to gaze morning and 4 this afternoon, when it was an-

THERE WILL BE A GREAT TURN OUT.
All New York will turn out to-morrow to pay the last honors to the memory of Gen. Sherman as the body of the old warrior is borne from his late nome through the city on the way to its final resting place in St. Louis. The military pagrant, for which all the arrangements have now been completed, will be one of the most imposing and impressive ever witnessed in this city.

If all the military and Grand Army organicalseon, which will bear the come containing the body of Gen. Sherman, will be drawn by four handsome artillery horses with mourning trappings and plumes, and will be led by soldiers of the Hegular Army.
